The Deer

“As the deer pants for the water brooks,
so my soul pants after you, O God.”

Psalm 42:1

There lived a very famous king whose name was David. He loved God and wrote the words above to Him. And even though David was a king he loved prayer and worship and time with God more than the things of this world. The bible tells us that King David was not a perfect man. Even so God called him a man after his own heart because he sought to love and obey God all the days of his life. You can read the story of king David in 1 Samuel and 2 Samuel.

The Lion

“Don’t weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has overcome.”

Revelation 5:5

I’m going to share good news with you today. News about a victorious Jesus who is also called the Lion of Judah. He sits at the right hand of God in heaven and He prays for you. He has the power to change your tears into joy. And He wants to do it. He also wants to give you power to pray for your enemies so that peace and love will win the day. Just ask Him. Yes, He will do it.

The Antelope

“according to the blessing of God...these are the animals you may eat..the gazelle and the antelope...”

Deuteronomy 12:15, 14:4-5

The Lord has made many unique and wonderful animals for us hasn't he? The antelope is one of them. God has made it as a blessing for food and He has made it fast! It can run up to 55 mph or more. When it sees an enemy wolf or coyote coming, it can leap and run away very quickly. And the antelope will warn his friends as well. With his white tail and rump, as he leaps he says, “Run, there's danger!” God has also made you able by His Spirit to run from danger. So when you see evil trying to cause you to sin, run fast into the safety of God's love and commands. And warn your friends!

The Bear and Cub

“Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.”

Proverbs 17:12

Let's stop and consider the behavior of a bear when one of her cubs is at risk. It is well known that a mama bear whose cub is threatened with danger will become furious and very aggressive. She even has the intent of killing the suspected enemy. Yet God said it is better to run into this situation than to hang out with foolish people where the danger is much more serious. Look for and ask God to give you good friends.

The Sheep

“He calls his own sheep by name and leads them...”

John 10:3

If you have never really had the chance to look at the face of a sheep, you might notice that it has a very trusting and peaceful expression. It has been said by shepherds that they can tell the difference between the faces of the sheep. This is because the shepherd has taken care of the sheep from the time they were born. He knows them. God says that we are like sheep and that He is our Shepherd. You can read about this in Psalm 23 and John 10:1-14. To know this will bring you great peace and joy.

The Sparrow

“Aren’t two sparrows sold for an assarion? Not one of them falls on the ground apart from your Father’s will.”

Matthew 10:29

If you looked up the word assarion in the dictionary you would find that it is a coin that is worth less than a penny. And have you noticed how very small a sparrow is in size? Out in the wide open spaces with houses, trees, and sky, we often miss seeing them as they go about their business. In the verse above, Jesus tells us that there is someone that notices and cares for them. It is our Father God. And so we learn here that if the Father is carefully watching over birds that are sold for less than a penny, how much more careful is He in watching over you? You are many times more valuable than any sparrow. You are His child. He loves you.
